

STEPHEN L. WRAY, CPA, MBA

Manager | Audit & Assurance

Stephen Wray has been a key member of the Audit & Assurance department at Grimbleby Coleman since 2016, with experience in tax and accounting dating back to 2014. He started his career in financial services while studying at Grand Canyon University, Arizona, and quickly rose through the ranks. Now a manager, Stephen is passionate about continuous learning and growth. He enjoys building strong relationships and making a positive impact on clients and their businesses.

Outside of work, Stephen volunteers at Big Valley Church, his childhood alma mater. He and his wife help lead in elementary school ministries, mentoring children and serving as positive role models. Stephen draws inspiration from his father, who balanced family, hard work, and faith with grace.

INDUSTRY EXPERIENCE

Throughout his career, Stephen has collaborated with clients spanning diverse industries. Being an integral member of our Construction Niche, he specializes in construction accounting and auditing.
